

Fall 2026 Semester Courses

Day Classes

Course Name	Credit Hours	Time	Day
BTH 211 Theology I --Introduction to the study of theology, including discussion of historical aspects in the development of a Pentecostal theology. This course includes a study of God (His existence, qualities of His being, His nature, decrees, providence, and preservation, with special attention given to the doctrine of the Trinity) and of angels and demons in view of Scripture.	2	8:00-8:50 am	M/W
MIN 323 Conflict Management --A study of Biblical principles as they apply to human relationships. The practical application of conflict management in a church setting. This course will also consider how perception, negotiation, fairness, common understanding, compromise and cooperation apply in conflict management.	2	8:00-8:50 am	M/W
SOC 450 Intercultural Communications --A practical study of principles and processes for presenting the Gospel to an increasingly diversified, contemporary society. The incarnation is presented as the model for cross-cultural communication of the Gospel. Contemporary issues such as ethnic, socioeconomic, and linguistic diversity are addressed.	3	8:00-8:50 am	M/W
ENG 111 Composition I --This course is designed to help students begin the process of writing academic prose by using proper grammar and formal English. Emphasis will be on creating a proper thesis and outline while using standard research and organization skills. While writing properly, the student will learn to edit and improve written communication skills.	3	9:00-10:15 am	T/TH
BNT 220 Acts --A thorough study of the factual content of the book of Acts with emphasis on the work of the Holy Spirit in the origin and growth of the early church. The journeys of Paul are shown in relation to his epistles.	3	9:00-10:15 am	T/Th
MIN 100 Intro to Christian Ministry --This course provides a broad understanding of the concept of ministry as an essential outcome of the Christian life. Emphasis is placed upon the development of a personal ministry framework to inform students' response to God's call in their life. Special consideration is given to the practical application of a ministry philosophy appropriate to the student's field of study.	3	11:45-1:00 pm	M/W
ENG 121 Applied Information Literacy --An introduction for the freshman student to the library, how to find information from various kinds of resources, how to evaluate the information available, etc. A practical course with hands-on experience, it enables the student to apply skills acquired to research assignments.	2	8:00-8:50 am	T/TH
BNT 234 Pastoral Epistles --An exposition of I & II Timothy and Titus. Consideration is given to the authorship, date, the threat of Gnosticism, and the significance that these epistles have for church organization and for the function of the pastor of the local church.	2	8:00-8:50 am	T/TH
EDU 200 History & Philosophy of Education --A survey of the historical and philosophical development of education beginning with educational principles found in Scripture and including both sacred and secular educational practices, the various philosophical types of education with application to education in a variety of settings both secular and sectarian.	3	9:00-10:15 am	T/TH
BOT 120 Historical Books --A presentation of the history of Israel in the Old Testament books from Joshua to Esther inclusive, giving special attention to the purpose, outline, important events, and characters of each book.	3	9:00-10:15 am	T/TH
MPM 211 Homiletics I -- A study of the technical side of the sermon and its preparation. A survey is made of the various kinds of sermon outlines. Emphasis is given to the analysis of student-prepared outlines and to practical experience.	3	11:45-1:00 pm	T/TH

Night Classes

Course Name	Credit Hours	Time	Day
MCO 213 Pastoral Counseling --A study of counseling issues faced by the 21st century minister, and methods for dealing with the personal and spiritual problems of church and community leaders.	3	6:00-8:50 pm	Monday
BIN 101 Hermeneutics --The art and science of Biblical interpretation, giving special attention to the principles necessary for sound scriptural exegesis in the light of its historical, grammatical, and theological content.	3	6:00-8:50 pm	Monday
EDU 200 History & Philosophy of Education --A survey of the historical and philosophical development of education beginning with educational principles found in Scripture and including both sacred and secular educational practices, the various philosophical types of education with application to education in a variety of settings both secular and sectarian.	3	6:00-8:50 pm	Tuesday
MIN 327 Servant Leadership —Servant Leadership is a style that was exemplified throughout the ministry of Christ. In this course we will explain Servant Leadership as a leadership style, describe the skills and characteristics that servant leaders need, and discuss how to apply this leadership style to your personal ministry.	3	6:00-8:50 pm	Tuesday
REL 211 World Religions --A study of the major religions of the world and the major western cults. Their history, principal doctrines, and a Biblical refutation will be covered, with an emphasis on how their adherents may be won to Christ.	3	6:00-8:50 pm	Tuesday
SOC 221 Marriage & Family --A general education course in pre-marital and marital relationships. It includes discussions of the structure and functions of the family relationships, and child rearing.	2	6:00-7:50 pm	Thursday
BTH 313 Theology III --A course covering pneumatology and divine healing. This is a study of the person, offices, administration, and ministry of the Holy Spirit; a Scriptural presentation and defense of the distinctive doctrines held by the Assemblies of God; a practical study of the work of the Spirit in sanctification and in the Spirit-filled life. The course also includes a study of the work of Christ in divine healing. It views principles and examples of divine healing from both the Old and New Testaments, as well as in church history with emphasis on prayer for the sick in the life of the minister.	3	6:00-8:50 pm	Thursday
MIN 320 Intro to Administration —An investigation of management principles used in developing an organization that is based upon a Biblical worldview. Leadership principles introduced in the course are further developed in MIN 322 Applied Leadership.	3	6:00-8:50 pm	Thursday

Online Classes

Course Name	Credit Hours
APO 201 Apologetics --A introduction to the foundational understanding of, and skills within, the field of apologetics. Students will explore the major apologetic issues that arise today and will learn both the critical thinking skills and theological principles in order to respond persuasively.	3
MIS 215 Spirit Empowered Church --A comprehensive examination of the Book of Acts and the New Testament epistles to discover principles pursued by Spirit-filled leaders to powerfully and effectively propagate the gospel, noting particularly principles that are foundational to contemporary church growth.	3

BNT 232 Corinthians & Thessalonians -- An analysis and exposition of each book stressing the historical background, devotional, and doctrinal matters, with special emphasis on the gifts of the Spirit.	3
BNT 100 New Testament Survey --A survey of the New Testament in the context of the history, geography, and culture of its time, including the intertestamental period, Judaism in the time of Christ, the ministry of Jesus, and the apostolic church. The chief events, characters, and teachings of each book are studied in relation to the ongoing revelation of God's plan.	3
BNT 231 Romans & Galatians --A detailed study of Romans and Galatians, giving special attention to the background and doctrinal teaching of each book.	3